Palacio De Marquesa translates as The Palace of Noble Women This is a story of resilience, cultural fusion and artistic patronage. The 20th century women of Taos have shaped Taos into a unique cultural haven. The eight room inn is built around the stories of these marvelous women Mabel Dodge Luhan, Millicent Rogers, Agnes Martin, Martha Reed, Georgia O'Keeffe, Dorothy Brett, and Gene Kloss. Palacio de Marquesa is a luxury inn located 2.5 blocks from the historic Plaza of Taos, Nestled in the heart of this enchanting city, this stately inn offers a unique opportunity to own a piece of history. Palacio De Marquesa offered elevated guest experiences along with local charm. The tradition of artful hospitality, creative event schedules and boutique guest immersions awaits for the next owner. Originally a cherished family residence, this magnificent property has been lovingly transformed into a welcoming inn, but its versatile layout opens up the possibility of converting it back to a classic family compound. Currently an 8 bedroom bed and breakfast with a manager's quarters. The property consists of two tracts of land totaling 1.24 acres. The Inn is situated on just over half an acre with the other half-acre available for development as a two unit condo project, single family homes or pools, grounds or gardens for Palacio De Marquesa to be developed for a unique event space with a Taos Centric feel. The property has received well-deserved national press and built a flawless reputation as a premier inn in Taos. Heritage Hotels & Resorts created a vision to tell the story of Taos, New Mexico's remarkable women, and their unique contributions to the city and state. Each of these women had a tremendous influence on New Mexico's culture through their art, fashion, philosophy, and design sensibility. At Palacio de Marquesa, the magnificent tapestry of Taos's exceptional women unfolds. In today's experience economy, travelers seek more than just a place to stay—they crave meaning, connection, and beauty woven into every detail. A boutique inn in Taos offers just that: personalized touches, a sense of story, and an immersive escape grounded in heritage and elevated with elegance. This is where past and present meet—where hospitality becomes an art form, and every guest steps into a curated moment of wonder. Make this dream yours!
