The Ranch at Angel Fire is a rare legacy opportunity to own the largest privately held property in Angel Fire Resort. This 186 acre ranch is jewel of alpine beauty and serenity. A prime development with mixed use Residential and Commercial.

Cross a charming, village maintained bridge overlooking adjoining greenbelt, beaver pond, year round streams and horses grazing in wild flower meadows. Wheeler Peak, New Mexico's tallest mountain, anchors a stunning view to the Northwest. Whispering aspen groves, spruce, tall pines, and oak glades are on the upper portions of the property, where ancient rock bluffs punctuate grass meadows with dramatic 360° views of Wheeler Peak, Osha Mountain, Monte Verde Lake and the entire Moreno Valley.

Two year-round mountain streams offer watering holes for local wildlife, including the abundant elk herds, white tail deer, mule deer, bear, mountain lions, and bobcats which grace the mountains and valleys of Angel Fire. Bird enthusiasts will appreciate the many hawks, falcons, bald eagles, golden eagles, owls, and falcons that make their home in the towering trees.

Three existing cleared building sites with stunning sunset views of the lake and Sangre de Cristo mountains, are a natural starting place to create your sanctuary at The Ranch at Angel Fire.

The ace in the hole for discerning buyers is the property's zoning, offering both Residential and Mixed Use, the highest use zoning classification. This rare zoning enables development, or sub-development of parts of the property. Upscale boutique hotel? Destination spa or retreat? Restaurant, condos or casitas? World class mountain bike clinic? Equestrian ranch?

As the Ranch is located within Angel Fire Resort, buyers receive three lifetime memberships that provide access to the 18 hole championship golf course, tennis courts, mountain bike trails, summer and winter access to the ski resort, fishing at Monte Verde lake and Clubhouse facilities which include a year round indoor lap pool, spa, workout facilities, two restaurants and other resort amenities.
