Historic Cabin with Character, Utilities &
Short-Term Rental Potential â€” Regina, NM

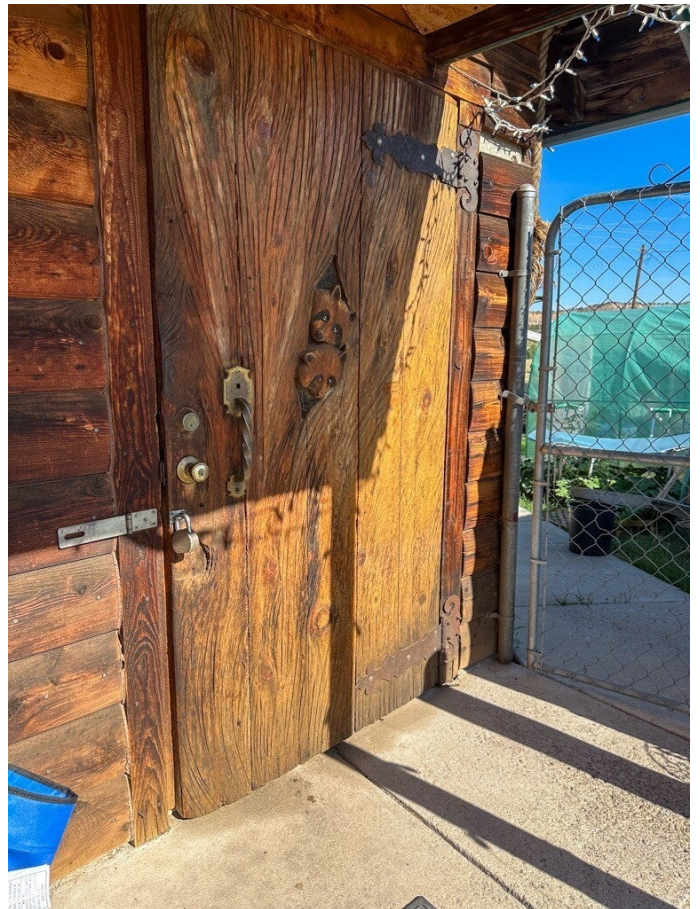

Step back in time and experience the charm of this one-of-a-kind historical cabin in Regina, New Mexico formerly known as the Coon Holler Bar. Nestled along State Highway 96 with excellent frontage and views of the Jemez Mountains, this unique property is packed with rustic character.

The original bar top, carved wooden beams, rock fire pit, and performance stage remain intact, creating the perfect backdrop for storytelling, gathering, or even reviving a piece of New Mexico's colorful past. All utilities are in place, including a permitted septic system, making this ready for your vision, whether itâ€™s a private getaway, full-time home, or a cash-flowing short-term rental.

Zoned residential with room to grow, this property offers possibilities for tiny homes or RV spots (buyer should verify with Sandoval County).

Outdoor lovers will appreciate being:

Less than 5 miles from public lands
A quick 20-minute drive to National Forest
Under an hour from three State Park lakes â€” ideal for boating, fishing, and water sports Located in New Mexico Game Management Unit 6A, a popular destination for hunters and wildlife enthusiasts.

If you’re dreaming of a place with soul,
scenery, and income potential, this rare gem in Regina is waiting for you.
